

EXHIBIT A

Answers and Documents Produced:

- a.
 1. Settlement Agreement with Hugh Lee Williams wife Lois Williams. (documents attached)
 2. Duffy Williams / Steffansen lawsuit. (Documents attached)
 3. Hugh L. Williams Family Trust, Scott Williams / Steffansen lawsuit. (Documents attached)
This was a lawsuit filed by Beneficiary Duffy Williams former attorney. The Trust attorney determined it to be frivolous. It was dismissed with prejudice.
- b. All credit card statements attached.
- c. No other debt except above credit cards in 2019. (Except monthly rent and utilities).
- d. 2019, 2020 Income Scott Williams (Documents attached).
2019 No Taxable Income, 2020 No Income
- e. 2019 June, July Trust receipts (Documents attached).
- f. 2019 June, July Trust transfers (Documents attached).
- g. Assets July of 2019 Include :
 1. 2008 Ford F-350 (document attached)
 2. 1989 Pace American Trailer (not registered or titled, used Dealer Plate)
 3. 1982 Kiefer 2-Horse Trailer (not registered or titled, used Dealer Plate)
 4. 1980 Circle D Stock Trailer (not registered or titled, used Dealer Plate)
 5. US Bank Checking Account #0794 (document attached)
 6. US Bank Savings Account #3336 (document attached)
 7. Debt owed to Scott Williams by the Hugh L. Williams Family Trust ($37,123.00)
 8. Compensation due to Scott Williams as Trustee of the Hugh L. Williams Family Trust.
 9. 1/6 interest in the remaining assets of the Hugh L. Williams Family Trust.
- h. All text and email communications attached.

Note: Beneficiaries Kent and Duffy Williams were attempting to assume parts of Hugh's business interests for themselves. I provided the information they requested. Beneficiary Karen Priest was using Hugh's RV as part of her business school project. Also the "Settlement Agreement" with Lois Williams required a list of assets and a basic accounting of those assets which was provided to all Beneficiaries before the initial distribution.

